

Shifts in Point of View Exercise

Directions: Rewrite each sentence below to eliminate any mixed point of view. When you are finished, check your responses with the answer key on the next page.

1. Every student should study more often than you studied in high school.

2. Unfortunately, most college students underestimate the amount of time we need to study.

3. Regardless of how hard advisors try, you cannot make sure that students attend every class.

4. One should discuss possible majors and career choices with your advisor.

Answer Key

1. Every student should study more often than ~~you~~ he or she studied in high school.
2. Unfortunately, most college students underestimate the amount of time ~~we~~ they need to study.
3. Regardless of how hard advisors try, ~~you~~ they cannot make sure that students attend every class.
4. One should discuss possible majors and career choices with ~~your~~ his or her advisor.